ABOUT US

JACKIE TAYLOR HOLSTEN
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR | BOARD CHAIR
HOLSTEN HUMAN CAPITAL DEVELOPMENT, NFP

We're excited to welcome you to the next Holsten Human Capital Development (HHCD) fundraiser—an evening that brings people together to create real impact. Led by Executive Director and Board Chair Jackie Taylor Holsten, this event reflects her lifelong commitment to equity and community empowerment.

Founded in 1999 as the social services arm of Holsten Real Estate Development Corporation, HHCD was created to support residents in mixed-income communities through housing, employment, and essential services. Under Jackie's leadership, HHCD continues to build strong, inclusive neighborhoods across the Chicagoland area.

Vision

- Ensure quality housing in safe, thriving neighborhoods.
- Offer services that meet the diverse needs of residents.
- Foster economic growth in the communities we serve.

Mission

- Expand access to resources that support self-sufficiency and wellness.
- Provide services, affordable housing, and economic opportunity.
- Build strong communities through strategic partnerships.

IN 2024, HHCD:

Provided social services to over 3,000 households

Held more than 500 community events, attended by over 11,000 Holsten residents

Engaged over 500 volunteers in supporting community programs

AND MORE!

EVENT HIGHLIGHT

This event is about more than bowling—it's about bringing people together from all walks of life to support a shared mission.

By uniting neighbors, leaders, and changemakers across Chicago, we're creating space for connection, awareness, and collective impact in the fight to end homelessness.

DAY OF EVENT

Guests may arrive at 5:00 PM, with bowling kicking off at 6:00 PM. Enjoy a premium buffet, drink tickets, raffles, silent auctions, and special guest appearances from Olympic medalists, NFL players, comedians, and more.

EVENT VENUE

This fundraiser will take place in downtown Chicago at the newly renovated Lucky Strike in their semi-private event suite. This exclusive space features six dedicated bowling lanes, access to two pool tables, a private premium buffet, and arcade games.
